

Sam Mihara

HIST 501 History and Theory,
Wed. 7-9:45 pm

Speaker Date and Time:
March 1, 7-9:45 pm, zoom

Sam was incarcerated in Heart Mt. during World War 2 and is an internationally recognized speaker on the camps, particularly his family's experience being forced from their home in San Francisco in 1942. He will speak and have a Q&A with the class about the history of disability based on his experience of being in the Heart Mt. Hospital as a child, his father's experience of being denied treatment and going blind in camp and his grandfather being misdiagnosed and dying in camp. He will talk about doing research on his family history, accessing Federal records using FOIA, and most recently being part of panel on Disability in the Japanese American Community.
